

STAY NOTES.

Wheat is $1 a bushel at Fort Scott.

The Missouri Expose, a new paper published at Fort City, made its appearance last week.

The Vidette was the first daily issued in Utah Territory. It first number bore the date of December 1, 1863.

The editor of The Tuscaloosa Reconstructionist is writing a history of the newspaper press of that city, from 1824 to the present time.

Raspberries and blackberries are abundant in Utah. Gooseberries yield well, and are the most profitable of the small fruits.

There are three trees on the farm of Levi Prizer in Clinton, which measure respectively 30 feet, 28 feet, and 26 feet in circumference, at the distance of two feet from the ground.

On the 22d inst., a farmer's wife was crushed to death by a pair of runaway horses near Grand, Wis. Her husband in attempting to rescue her had a leg and arm broken.

H. R. Holman of Kansas City is having a mammoth balloon made, in which he proposes making an ascent and race with Prof. Steiner, the balloonist, from Kansas City, on the 30th inst.

From Chillicothe to Council Bluffs, Iowa, the surveyors are now engaged in running an air line for a new railroad to be called the St. Louis, Chillicothe, and Council Bluff line. Construction will give Council Bluffs two competing lines to St. Louis.

Mrs. Margaret Malsen died of old age, in Cincinnati, last week, in the 88th year of her age. She was a native of Pennsylvania, and for 33 years a resident of Cincinnati, to which place she removed when it was a wilderness.

At the 21st inst., the thermometer stood at 104 in the shade at St. Joseph, Mo. The mean temperature for 97 days was 70°, so the heat has been generally a good average. The wheat crop is now in full blast, and is of good quality.

The correspondent of The Detroit Free Press says: "Crops of all varieties have been planted, stands well, is of good quality, and is ahead of time." The Standard says that the crops are looking well, and are to bear a large yield. The Daily Commonwealth says that the crops are looking well, promising a large yield. The correspondent of The Dodge County Republican says that the prospects of an abundant harvest were never better.

MICHIGAN. — The correspondent said a few weeks since Sentinel says: "We received all the word of fruit in Indiana, and are awaiting the fruit of grain in Michigan."

The following items from the fruit crop are given: The apple crop, wheat has been reaped, and more especially the early crop; the crop will be harvested and sold in a few days.
